THE PETRIFFIED FOREST OF CALIFORNIA.—The "Petriified Forest" discovered near Calistoga last June, or then first made known to the general public, is one of the wonders of the State. The name adopted by common usage conveys an erroneous impression, for there is no forest nor any petrified tree in a standing position. There are parts of a dozen petrified trees lying down, and scattered over an area about three hundred yards square. The largest is five feet in diameter and about fifteen feet long with nothing to indicate what became of the remainder of the tree. In no case have any petrified branches or leaves been found, nor more than twenty feet of the trunk of any one tree. The diameters of the trunks vary from one foot to five feet, the majority being over two feet. The petrification is complete. All the woody fibre has disappeared and has been replaced by a grayish crystallization that seems to consist mainly of carbonate of lime. The grain of the wood is distinctly preserved in appearance, and also in the firmness of crystallization, for the petrifications split readily with the grain, so that there is no difficulty in getting long and straight splinters. The ground near the trunks is covered with large and small splinters, which a person, ignorant of the vicinity of petrifications, would not suspect at first sight to be of any material but ordinary wood discolored by the weather. Knot holes and fractures are found in the stone, and occasionally holes lined with transparent crystals of carbonate of lime.

One of the most singular features of this "forest" is that every stone trunk is broken across transversely, and at every break the end is not so smooth as if sawn but more smooth than a trunk broken in its vegetable condition could be. The wood had certainly turned into stone, or been replaced by stone before the trunk broke. But the pieces are usually short—not more than two or three feet long, and the stone is strong, and a piece twelve or fifteen feet in length supported at the ends would probably not break by its own weight. We do not know that any person has broken these trunks by design, and we have no way of explaining the fracture except by supposing that the trunks were petrified while upright and were afterward broken by falling.—From the Alta California.

DOUBLE FAMILY MONUMENT.—A somewhat curious change of domestic relations occurred in the town of Orange, in this State, some five or six years ago. Two young men, neighbors and friends, had married two young and amiable women, and each couple had lived together happily for a few years, each having one or two infant pledges of affection in the meantime vouchsafed to them. At the time spoken of—six years ago—one of these friends and his friend's wife took sick, and both died within a week or two of each other. The friends during their life had secured adjoining lots in the cemetery of the town, and when the decease of the parties mentioned took place, they were buried in their respective lots, but in such a way that a monument could be erected between them.

Whether this was accidental or not, is not related. About five months after the double decease, however, the surviving male and female representatives of both houses, somewhat to the surprise of the neighbors, concluded to perpetuate the former friendship by a closer alliance; in other words they got married, and their wedding was a splendid affair. After a time—about three years ago—the united representatives of both houses concluded a joint arrangement to show their love for the dead, by erecting a splendid marble monument—the finest in the cemetery—on one of the faces of which the names and virtues of the dead husband were set forth, on the other face those of the deceased wife. We should think that a visit of the living couple to the cemetery would be somewhat embarrassing to each, though we admit that it is difficult to say what is the state of mind of people of the peculiar taste they evidently possess.—Boston Traveller.

FEMALE SOCIETY.—What makes those men who associate habitually with women, superior to others? What makes that woman who is accustomed and at ease in the society of men, superior to her sex in general? Solely because they are in the habit of free, graceful, continued conversations with the other sex. Women in this way lose their frivolous and peculiarities; awaken their delicacy and their faculties; unfold all their beauty and cultivation in the spirit of intellectual rivalry. And the men who use their pedantic, rude, declamatory or sullen manner. The coin of the understanding and the heart is changed continually. The asperities are rubbed off, their better materials polished and brightened, and their richness, like fine gold, is wrought into finer workmanship by the fingers of women than it ever could be by those of men. The iron and steel of their characters are hidden, like the harness and armor of a giant, in studs and knots of gold and precious stones, when they are not wanted in actual warfare.

MINK GROWING.—A correspondent of the Fall River News states that Mr. Owen, of Westerly, Mass., some two years since, purchased a pair of minks, of a species commonly called by fur dealers and trappers, the "American Sable," for $500; that he had got his money back, and now has $7 minks on hand, one pair of which he has refused $400 for. The sable mink is rather smaller in size and of a darker hue than New England minks. This minkery is attracting considerable attention among farmers in Westport, Mass., and elsewhere, and doubtless the example of Mr. Owen might be followed to advantage in many localities.

CORK TREES.—There are growing in this city two of these trees raised from acorns sent out a number of years ago by the Patent Office in Washington. The one in our own yard is now nearly twenty feet high and five inches in diameter, and would even now supply corks for a respectable drug store. The tree is of erect and symmetrical growth, with dark, evergreen foliage, and is far more ornamental than any species of our native oak, resembling somewhat the water or Spanish oak in its foliage.

We notice to-day that the last cold snap has seized its leaves.—Columbian (Miss.) Index.

Why is the letter "u" of more value than cream in a dairy maid? Because it makes "better" butter.

DRUGS AND CHEMICALS.

SIMMONS' LIVER
The symptoms of Liver Complaint are uneasiness and pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is in the shoulder, and is mistaken for rheumatism. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels in general constive, sometimes alternating with lax. The head is troubled with pain, and dull, heavy sensation, considerable loss of memory, accompanied with painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. Often complaining of weakness, debility and low spirits. Sometimes many of the above symptoms attend the disease, and at other times very few of them; but the liver is generally the organ most involved. Cure the Liver with

FINANCIAL.

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.
SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.
Offer for sale at par and accrued interest the
FIRST MORTGAGE
LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS
—OF THE—
Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than twenty-two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.
The Bonds are free from United States tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold; the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SIX PER CENT. Textus PER CENT. per annum.
They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.
The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will, at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price. In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Broker will supply these bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Brokers employed to sell this loan. For sale by

CLEAR & HARMLESS AS WATER.
NATTAN'S CRYSTAL DISCOVERY
The following letters speak for themselves.
Washington, D. C., July 4, 1870.
Mr. Arthur Nattans: Dear Sir—After a very thorough and impartial trial of your Crystal Discovery for a month, I feel compelled to acknowledge its very great superiority over any other article now in use for the purpose designated. It is a speedy restorer of the color and growth of the hair, and no one using it according to directions can fail, I am convinced, to attain this much desired result to perfection. The simplicity of the preparation and its entire cleanliness affords a new opportunity to the vast numbers utterly disgusted with the poisonous nostrums in use. Having a large number of my personal acquaintances who use your preparation with equal success, I cordially recommend Crystal Discovery to all persons desiring to use anything of this kind. Very respectfully,
P. De Lk, 701 I street, N. W.

Washington, D. C., July 25, 1870.
Mr. Arthur Nattans: Dear Sir—It affords me pleasure to say that I have used your Crystal Discovery with perfect success. I have tried many others, I find yours superior to any I have heretofore used, and I cannot too highly recommend it as a rapid restorer of the growth of the hair, and by a few applications restoring it to its original color. It is perfectly clean and free from any objectionable ingredients.
Very respectfully yours,
R. W. SILVOY,
K st., bet. 4th and 5th, N. W.
Alexandria, Va., Sept. 10, 1870.
Mr. Arthur Nattans: Sir—I have great pleasure in testifying to the excellence of your Crystal Discovery for the Hair. My back hair is remarkably long and thick, and became prematurely gray, (this being hereditary.) In eight days it resumed its natural color, chestnut brown, its purity, pleasant odor, and freedom from all mineral and poisonous substances, as well as its other excellencies. I will recommend it to my acquaintances. Very respectfully,
Miss L

MEDICAL.

Baltimore Look Hospital.
DR. JOHNSTON.
Physician of this celebrated institution, has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effectual Remedy in the world for all
DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Langour, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the songs of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, &c.

YOUNG MEN.
Especially, who have become the Victims of Solitary Vice, and dreadful and destructive habits which annually sweep to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entered listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.
Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency), Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other Disqualifications, should rely on the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS.
Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored.
This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to apply the consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the natural powers are lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the measure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened. Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.
